KEEP YOUR BLOOD CLEAN

LORD SALISBURY'S FUNERAL

Many Distinguished People of Note Attended the Ceremony.

London, Sept. 1.—The remains of Lord Salisbury, who died Aug. 22, were interred beside those of his wife in the burial ground of the Cecils, at Hatfield. The arrangements were of the most private and simple character. All the children of the deceased were present, as were also Premier Balfour, Lord Selborne and a few intimate neighbors. Otherwise the mourners were made up of the dead statesman's tenants, retainers and inhabitants of Hatfield.

The coffin was carried to and from the parish church by old retainers. Simultaneously a memorial service was held in Westminster abbey, which was attended by representatives of King Edward, Emperor William and other members of royal and imperial families, cabinet ministers, former cabinet ministers, diplomats, including Ambassador Choate, who was accompanied by Mrs. Choate, and members of the other embassies and a host of peers, members of parliament and others.
